Committees

Bench and Bar Committee – deals with issues of common interest to the Bar and Polk County District Court. Issues may include procedures or broader issues on the administration of justice.
CLE Committee – plans CLE seminars of the Bar.
Family Law Committee – deals with issues relating to family law, including any needed revisions in the existing family law justice system which can be addressed on a local level.
Fee Arbitration Committee – hears disputes between attorneys and clients, primarily regarding fees. Membership on this committee is by recommendation of the Nominating Committee (past presidents) and by approval of the Board of Directors.
Law Day Committee – the Law Day committee plans activities for the observance of Law Day.
Membership Committee – encourages and recruits attorneys for membership; develops ideas and events to promote membership.
PCBA YLD – provides social networking and CLE opportunities for Young Lawyers.
Public Relations Committee - informs and educates the general public about the roles attorneys play in the community and the various services attorneys provide. Prepares informative publications, develops video presentations, and assists in the administration of the Polk County Bar Association's Speaker's Bureau. The Speaker's Bureau is a free service in which local attorneys and judges volunteer to speak for civic organizations, schools, and community groups on a variety of legal topics.
Small Firm/Solo Practice Committee - This is a newly created committee. We are looking for members to identify needs and interests that are unique to solo and small firm practices
Social Event & Golf Committee – plans social gatherings and the annual Bench/Bar golf event for the bar.

Application for Committee Appointment

The Polk County Bar Association invites you to join its more than 1500 members in supporting activities to benefit the Bar and the community. The PCBA Board and its committees are working to improve the practice of law, serve the legal needs of the poor, and provide some fun for members!

Membership in a PCBA Committee gives you a unique opportunity to participate in these efforts. Won't you join us?
